Important Information

¹ Requesting your Equifax credit file will not impact your credit score.

² Equifax Credit Score is included free of charge as part of your credit report, and is based on the information in your credit file at the time it is calculated. Equifax Credit Score is not the same as the FICO® score, which is also used by some lenders.

³ If you provide your Social Insurance Number (S.I.N.), we will cross-reference it with our records to ensure that we disclose the correct information to you. Knowing your S.I.N. helps us avoid delays and confusion in case another individual's identifying information (such as name and address) is similar to your own.
